San Diego is the second largest city in California, and the undisputed birthplace of the state. With its long history, beautiful natural landscape and diverse cultural experiences, as well as, its year-round moderate climate, San Diego has so much to offer; there is hardly a city that can compare. Its Spanish and Mexican heritage is reflected in a number of historical sites across the city, and the community is dedicated to supporting its vibrant, varied artistic and cultural enterprises. Above historic Old Town sits The University of San Diego, a private institution designed completely in a Spanish Revival style and consistently rated in the Top 10 Most Beautiful Campuses by the Princeton Review. From the comfort of USD's brand new San Buenaventura campus apartments overlooking Mission Bay, we'll explore all that the university and the city have to offer, from engaging instructors, to top-notch food service, to the broad, vivid canvas that is San Diego!

Accommodations:

The University of San Diego proudly offers the San Buenaventura Apartments. Several different apartment combinations are offered with private bedrooms and private or shared bathroom, depending on your preference. One bedroom apartments are available for either one or two people, or choose 2 bedroom/2 bathroom apartments or 4 bedroom/2 bathroom apartments. While we may guarantee you the apartment style, please understand that each apartment is unique with regard to square footage, configuration and view. Location rates can be found on the back of this page.
